

SCQF Framework

What is the SCQF?

- The Scottish Credit and Qualifications Framework (SCQF) is Scotland's national qualifications framework.
- This Framework helps people of all ages and from all walks of life to gain access to education and training at a level that is suitable for them. This level can then be built on, the Framework can help you plan your learning and guide you on the progression routes to take.
- It doesn't matter who you are or the level you are at, you can use the Framework to develop and progress your learning or training experience.

What are SCQF Levels?

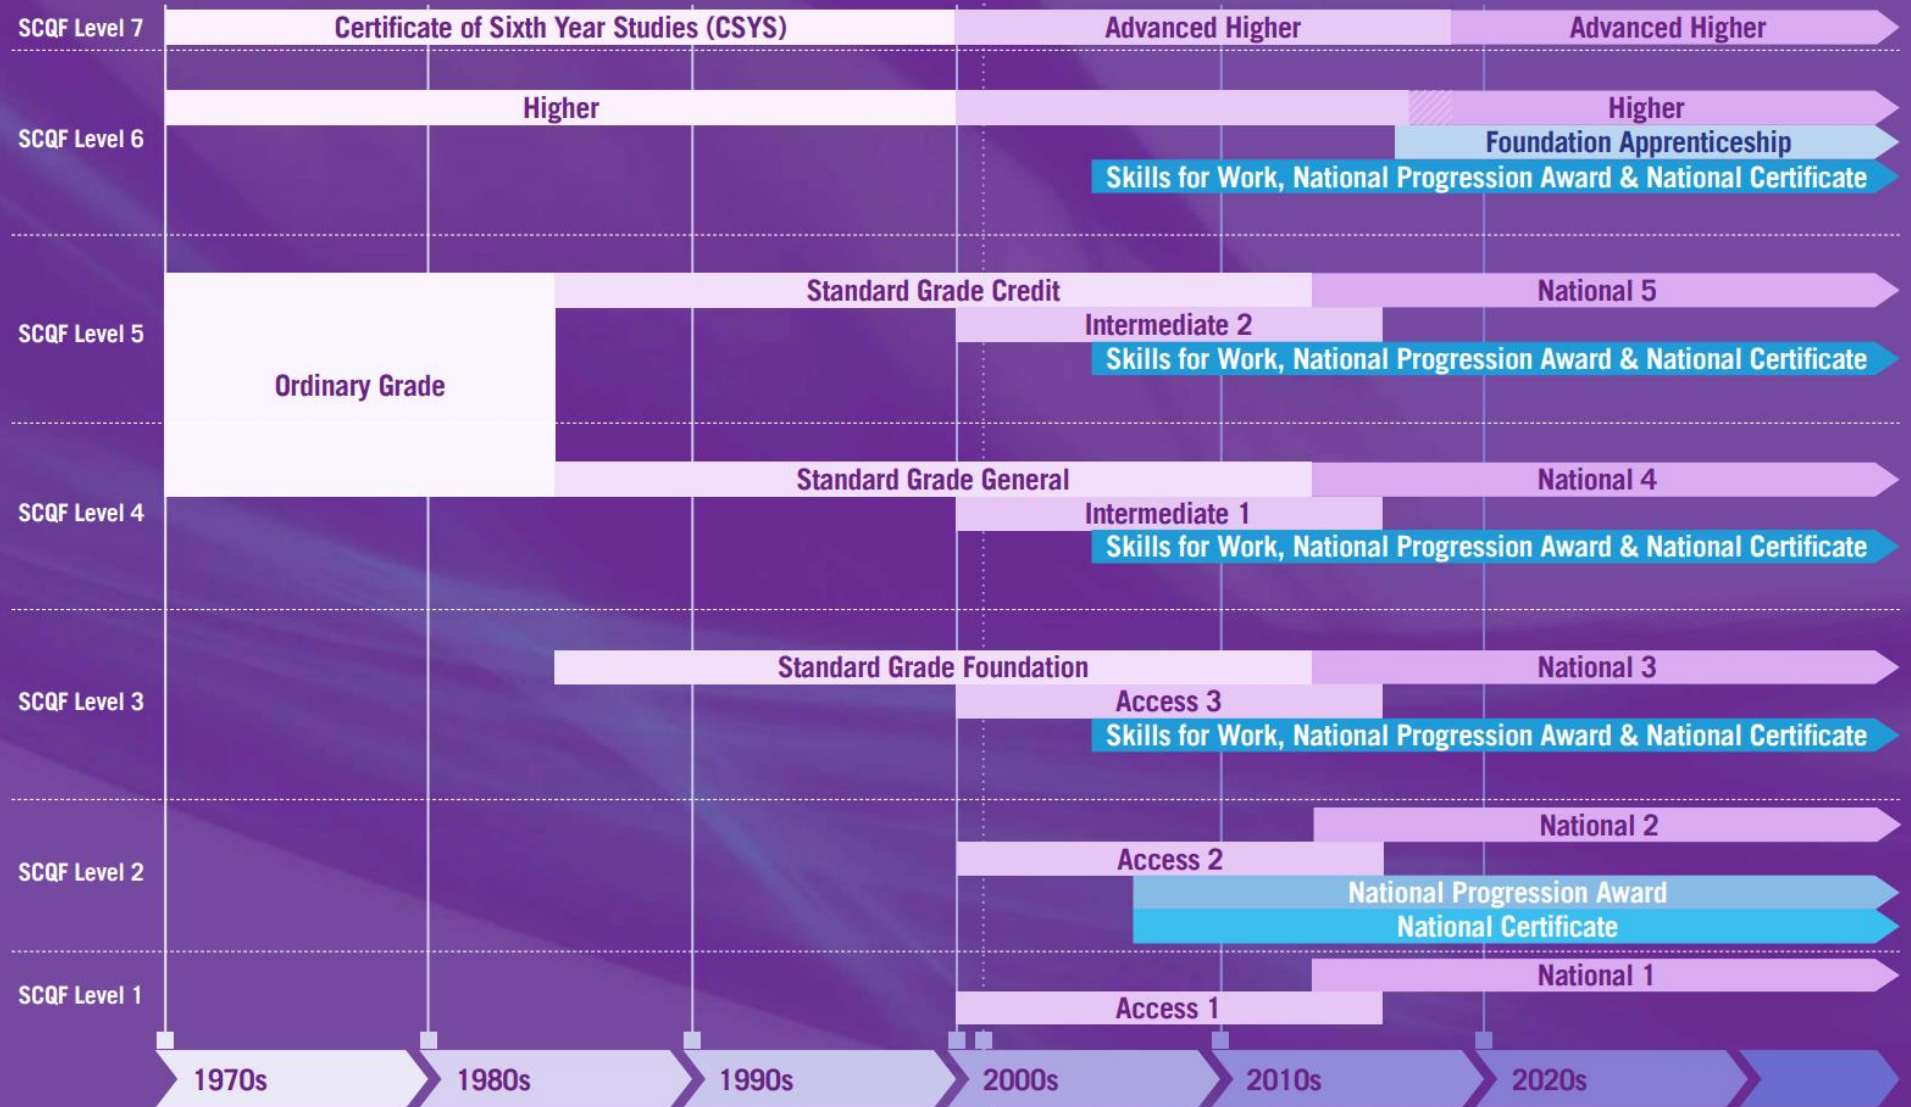

The Scottish Credit and Qualifications Framework has 12 levels.

These levels range from National Level 1, which is started at school, and go right up to Level 12 and gains you a Doctoral Degree.

SCOTTISH NATIONAL QUALIFICATIONS - SCQF LEVELS AND TIMELINES

This table shows how current and old qualifications relate to one another in terms of their SCQF level. The SCQF level of a qualification provides a way of comparing how demanding or difficult the learning involved in achieving a qualification is. This table can be used by anybody with a need to understand National Qualifications (normally awarded at school), for example employers when recruiting. More information on the SCQF can be found on our website (www.scf.org.uk). More information on current qualifications in the table can be found by visiting the SQA website (www.sqa.org.uk/cfe).
